PEDOPHILE SYMBOLS AND CODES: An Update

UPDATE: I was sent a link this morning to a blog featuring this article, and it is now apparent to me where the majority of the angry comments from Asatru folk and Odinists are originating. This blog (<http://kernelmag.dailydot.com/features/report/7582/revealed-the-secret-symbols-used-by-child-sex-offenders/#>) (<http://kernelmag.dailydot.com/features/report/7582/revealed-the-secret-symbols-used-by-child-sex-offenders/#>) purposefully misrepresents the Valknut by stating: "The 'Wiccan triple knot' is a well-known paedophile call sign." I have written to the Editor of the site and requested a retraction, removal of the image, or at the least a removal of any reference to my site. Please, feel free to send your complaints over this travesty to the Editor of that website: editorial@kernelmag.com (editorial@kernelmag.com). They do not allow comments on their website and request letters to the editor, instead. <http://kernelmag.dailydot.com/comment-policy/> (<http://kernelmag.dailydot.com/comment-policy/>) (<http://kernelmag.dailydot.com/comment-policy/>)

NOTICE: I regret that so many of my pagan brothers and sisters have been led to believe this post is for the purpose of attacking pagans. I'm disheartened that so many of you cannot read an article before being led as sheep to post ridiculous comments reflecting that lie. I will no longer approve argumentative comments to this thread, but you may read my answer to your questions and comment here: Addressing The Concerns Of Pagans \(https://tuecaa.wordpress.com/2013/08/13/addressing-the-concerns-of-pagans/\) .

I recently posted a comment (<http://the-ultimate-evil.blogspot.com/2009/07/to-those-who-call-me-paranoid.html>) left by a supposed self-proclaimed pedophile, in which he suggests my pedophile symbol collection is outdated by listing variants he and his ilk often use to fool the public. After posting the comment, I was asked for more information on the symbols. I have gone through all of the posts I've made (<http://the-ultimate-evil.blogspot.com/search/label/Pedophilia%20Symbols>) previously to gather the symbols and online codes into this one post for easy reference. Please, feel free to copy and paste the following anywhere and everywhere you feel it will do some good. PEDOPHILE SYMBOLS WE ALL RECOGNIZE:

(U) BLogo aka "Boy Lover"

(U) LBLogo aka "Little Boy Lover"

(U) GLogo a.k.a. "Girl Lover," Childlove

(U) CLogo a.k.a. "Child Lover"

(U) CLOMAL a.k.a. Childlove Online Media Activism

(<https://tuecaa.files.wordpress.com/2009/07/clsymbols.jpg>)

(U) BLogo jewelry

(U) GLogo Pendant

(U) BLogo imprinted on coins

(<https://tuecaa.files.wordpress.com/2009/07/cljewelry.jpg>) These images were discovered by undercover volunteers on a website created by online sexual predators, where they instruct young girls and children that sex with older men is natural and their parents are lying to them and cannot be trusted because they are possessive and don't want their children to feel good. It has been speculated by some around the net in discussion about these symbols that these meanings and even existence of the symbols are untrue, but those statements have been made by pedophiles whose primary goal it is to corrupt exposed discoveries about them. These people have often used these symbols on their own websites, and the jewelry is no figment of the imagination!

- A heart within a heart, or "GLogo" "GirlLover" is used by pedophiles attracted to girls. The heart in a heart, to them, represents a adult/ female child relationship.
- A blue spiral-shaped triangle symbol, or "BLogo" "BoyLover", symbolizes a boy (small triangle) surrounded by an older male (larger triangle)- and is meant to show adult/ male child relationships.
- The butterfly CLogo a.k.a. "ChildLover" (commonly looks like four touching hearts) in pink/blue represents non-preferential gender pedophiles (girl or boy attracted, often both).
- The yin-yang looking circle is CGlogo, used in reference to the website, Common Ground, which was created as a place for both girl and boy attracted pedophiles to meet and sympathize with each other.

- The pink/blue triangles is “AmaroSymbol” is a variation of the CGLogo.

Recently, I received a comment from a suspected pedophile bragging about the newest additions to their collections. These logos were not created by them but are already in place as innocent designs for unrelated issues. The purpose for using these common images is to fool society into not thinking twice when seeing someone wearing these items. In the words of the person who commented to me:

We do not adhere strictly to the shapes you posted. We can modify them slightly and still recognize other girl and boy lovers. I am sure you have seen the new necklace designed by Jane Seymour. You probably have a pendant of your own. The ladies like them. So do little girls and little girl lovers. When asked about mine and why I wear a bit of woman’s jewelry, I say it is a reminder of my dead wife and child. Don’t you know, people don’t like talking to widowers because it is a sore subject. They would rather change the subject fast, and so I escape further prying into my necklace that signals other girl lovers that I am a GL. For my BL attraction, I don the wiccan triple knot. I know too of GLs who use the Roxy surfer girl heart logo and BLs who use the pagan vaulknot. These are both variations of the GL heart logo and the BL triangle logo but the public will never know the difference.

The items to which he is referring:

Jane Seymore's Wiccan Triple knot Roxy Surfer Girl Valknot necklace Additionally, I recently posted remarks by pedos (<http://the-ultimate-evil.blogspot.com/2009/04/alice-day-2009.html>) on a pedophile site in regards to the attire they wear to celebrate Alice Day (<http://the-ultimate-evil.blogspot.com/2009/04/alice-day-2009.html>) and the lighting of pink candles: (clicking on the names will direct you to the exact quotes in their full spirit, including information about how they promote their deviances)

FreeThinkerGL (<http://www.annabelleigh.net/messages/468449.htm>) I will be wearing my GLogo t-shirt with my GLogo pendent for all to see!!!. I guess I will be doing what I do everyday, just hangout with friends and maybe if it's nice out, skateboard a bit etc. I don't have a LGF so I won't be spending anytime with little girls or boys but I will go to the park and LG watch. I also try to do a bit of CL activism on Alice Day or any day for that matter, in the sense that every time I see an opportunity I drop off a few pamphlets, flyers and cards that I always carry around in my backpack.....My suggestion to you or to anybody who reads this post is to celebrate Alice Day by lighting a pink candle in you're home or in public with a small note attached explaining what this holiday is about and what it means to be a girl lover. silentmist (<http://www.annabelleigh.net/messages/468399.htm>) I will be spending the day at a local market filled with beautiful LG's. Kinda boring, but I will at least be wearing a pink t-shirt. I doubt anyone will catch on, but you never know lall (<http://www.annabelleigh.net/messages/466975.htm>) I think the t-shirt thing is just to wear any kind of a pink shirt on Alice Day. That way if any asks if you're a pedo, you can claim you have no idea what they're talking about...and how dare they insinuate such a thing! lol.*

Pedobear (<http://the-ultimate-evil.blogspot.com/2009/01/terrorists-sleep-with-teddybears.html>) is said to have originally begun as a way for young members of chan sites (4chan, 7chan, 12chan...) to call attention to pedophiles in their midst pretending to be kids to get their information. The pedophiles have since adopted Pedobear as their symbol of pride on the chan sites, claiming that the invention of the bear is a “loving gesture” toward them.

(<https://tuecaa.files.wordpress.com/2009/07/pedobear.jpg>) There are also abbreviations you should be aware of. (<http://the-ultimate-evil.blogspot.com/2008/09/what-you-should-know-targets-grooming.html>) The intention is to classify their interests for other pedophiles within their ring:

- AoA: Short for “age of attraction” meaning the age groups of children they are attracted to
- MAA: Minor attracted adult (used in reverse of the word “pedophile”, though it is the same and places the child as responsible for the abuse)
- AoC: Age of (legal) consent
- CL: ChildLover / pedophile
- GL: Girl Lover / Attracted to girls
- BL: BoyLover / Attracted to boys
- YF: Young Friend, used when speaking about a victim
- CP: Child Porn (Which could mean anything from photos of naked or half-naked children to photos of actual child rape / torture)
- LG: Little Girl
- LB: Little Boy
- GM: Girl Moment – which is time spent with a young girl (that can either be a passing second consisting of nothing more than a glance or a smile, or a lengthy visit with a girl);
- BM: Boy Moment – same as Girl Moment

Then there are the chats, or message boards:

- CG: known as Common Ground, a place for pedophiles of both preferences. Common ground, while being the one that touts of being for “all” pedophiles is less used than either of the other forums:
- GC: GirlChat- for those that favor victimizing girls
- BC: BoyChat- for those that favor victimizing boys and Pedophile Organizations:

- NAMBLA: North American Man / Boy Love Association
- IBLD: International Boy Love Day – this is an actual Pedophile Holiday celebrated by them on June 23 of each year.
- Newgon: Pedophile version of Wikipedia
- CLOMA: Child Love Online Media Activism

If there is any further information I may have missed, I will add it as soon as possible. Keep an eye on the comments section in the event someone has something vital to add (and feel free if you have something I missed, please!). The main message of the commenter, and all pedophiles, was that no one cares about abused children because society refuses to speak of it or even acknowledge that. I believe it is damned time to change that, and I have something in mind to deal with it, which I will be posting about soon. Be prepared to stand with me. Never forget: In the fight against child sexual abuse, there are only two sides – For or Against. Those fighting “For” are pulling no punches. Can those “Against” say the same?

Great post, thanks for reminding everyone about this and including all of the other symbols here.

Newgon is not only a pedo “wiki”, it’s also a huge pedo message board. I’m surprised they have still left it open to public viewing. I guess that just shows their arrogance. Makes it much easier to keep an eye on them.

There are many other pedo boards and sites. But I won’t depress you or nauseate you with a list. Suffice it to say, I’ve got eyes all over. he, he, he. I keep telling the pedos to keep looking over their shoulders...

I just found out & im very dissapointed pedos used such ancient symbol (triangular spiral) to identify themselves, kinda reminds me of nazis doing the same with the svastica.

People have to be informed those symbols represent much more than the hate of nazis or the perversion of pedophiles, they are very spiritual symbols used since the begining of civilization!

Comment by Anonymous | August 29, 2009 | Reply

7. (copied from original post)

Anonymous: Thank you for your thoughts. If you notice, the original pedophile triangular spiral is a bit off from the Triquetra, or Triple Knot – the Celtic knot that has three points intertwined with a circle. It's the "first glance" reaction they go for as well as a way to run from the exposure of their traditional symbol.

I read once from a pedophile that the first group of symbols was a lie, that they were fabricated by the FBI. I believe he and others like him have been proven to be liars, as comes naturally, considering that they are now trying to conceal their symbols by using similar, socially acceptable images.

And yes, it is twisted that they use spiritual artifacts/symbols to represent their very anti-spiritual abuse.

Glad I checked this out. I've been working on a design of my own, a variation of the Valknot, that I was going to get tattooed. Might have to rethink that now. Pisses me off how these freaks can take symbolism from a proud heritage and turn it around for they're own sick purpose. I want the damn Valknot back!

Use it! We need to take back and purify OUR symbols! They will twist everything. Would we stop having children because they twist innocence to mean it is God's gift to them, which is what they say? No. This goes along with the "Take back the night" mantra.

Right now, we are dealing with a very current, very real issue with another piece of jewelry that was created without the knowledge of the company of its meaning. We're hoping they work with us in rectifying this problem, and hope they don't view their financial situation above the safety of innocent children and possibly survivors who would unknowingly wear their piece.

The best way to reclaim these otherwise innocent symbols is for the public to know what is going on. There has been no national coverage of these symbols, and so jewelry manufacturers and innocent people use them without knowing they are showing child rapists they support them.

12. WOW! I saw those Jane Seymour "open Heart" pendants on tv last year and immediately HATED them! I couldn't figure out why I had such a huge reaction to a piece of jewelry. Duh! Now I get it! To make matters worse, my daughter's bf gave her one for Val Day (they are teens) Perfectly innocent, but made me want to puke! Just thought of something: I like Ms. Seymour just fine, although come to think of it, I was a bit disturbed by her "Call me Kitty Kat" routine in Wedding Crashers...MK programing, maybe?

Comment by livinincrazytown | June 6, 2010 | Reply

- I think it's really sad that these demons have made such a mockery of everything innocent. I believe in this case, this pedo was trying to make people feel as hopeless about winning this war against them. I don't know of any incident where these supposed replacement symbols have been used. It was just his way of saying they will use anything.

As for Ms. Seymour, I think she looks incredible for her age. That scene didn't really bother me as it was rated R and anyone going in knew there would be sexual content. If I know a reason for a rating will bother me, I don't watch the movie. Anytime I see "gore" or "excessive violence," I opt out of viewing it. Adults are free to do as they please when it comes to their sexuality and other consenting adults. It's when sexuality involves children that it crosses the line – a line that will NEVER go away no matter how much child abusers want it to.

14. "Minor Attracted Adult" is a term created by academics, referring to adults who are attracted to minors. It was created because all other synonyms have taken on the most hateful and hysterical meaning, including that such individuals are criminals merely because of their sexual orientation.

Comment by abc | February 19, 2011 | Reply

15. Oh, look. Another baby raper trying to justify its actions by referring to forcing sex upon children as a "sexual orientation."

Rape is rape is rape is rape. Children can NEVER consent since a child is NOT capable, by any stretch of the imagination, of understanding sex. And when a person does not consent to something but another party does it, anyway, it is called assault.

In any court of law, any person who has not had the full understanding of a legal situation, be it criminal or civil, is not considered of sound mind to have made the decision to engage in such activity. This is the basis for every mental defect defense.

In the same manner, children CANNOT give consent to sexual intercourse, and are, therefore, the victims of RAPE when anyone engages in any form of sexual act with them.

No court would EVER find a rapist of an adult woman or man innocent just because the rapist claimed the desire to force sex onto his prey as a “sexual preference.” And understand this: The mental desire to rape in serial rapists would be considered as a “sexual preference” by those who rape children by the asinine argument set forth by “abc” in its above comment. No intelligent, rational, NORMAL human being would ever allow such a travesty to be entered into a plea in any court.

Nice try, pervert, but your defense is so far away from logic, it would fail before the gate opens. The best thing for anyone with the “sexual preference” you’re describing, i.e.: child rapists, is to kill themselves. Be humane. If you love children so much, protect their innocence by dying. Now. The more painful, the better. Thank you and have a nice day.

- agreed and as a heathen/pagan i find the use of or symbols infuriating if i could find thees people id give them the blood eagle (Google it trust me). the valknot is a symbol of the allfather chieftain of the gods Odin. it represents dedication to him the nine realms and also a symbol of the great hall VALHALLA were the greatest of warriors go to feast, battle and train with the gods in preparation for the Ragnarok (the heathen Armageddon). the Triquetra is also of Celt-o-Germanic significances it is related to the valknot in Germania and for the Celts it was a symbol of great power and protection. both the Celt-o-Germanic people believed in strict code of honor and integrity. the roman Tacitus when righting back to Rome about what he saw when he cam to northern Europe said that “they make no display of sexuality and adultery is virtually unheard of” let alone rape and pedophilia. we live by the nine noble virtues witch are as follows: Courage, Truth ,Honor, Fidelity, Discipline, Hospitality, Self Reliance, Industriousness,Perseverance.i challenge any of those child molesting f*%kers to approach a true heathen and tell them that the valknot is a symbol for pedophilia and walk away after, it’s not gonna happen because any true heathen would break your f*%king legs right their on the spot.

- From a Heathen, Thank you for this post. I find it just as blasphemous to say the Valknut is the symbol of pedophiles as to say that the crucifix is the symbol of pedophiles. The author of this page should do a little reading in history before trying to shame the old ways of my people. Sounds like a bad Christian trying to shame anything other than his or her own beliefs. I used to be a devout Christian but it didn't sit well with me so I swore a blood Oath to Odin and have felt freedom ever since. Even as a forgiving Christian I believed that All pedophiles should immediately die a horrible death and as a Heathen I believe it still. Death to all sexual predators, rapists and pedophiles! Author of the page...Read a book then come back and apologize to all the Pagans and Heathens that in many cases live a more honorable, courageous and noble life than many judgmental, in your face, judgmental Christian bible thumping, intolerant jackasses.

◦ Tuecaa,

I am loving your response — I agree with you whole-heartedly pedophiles are not able to be rehabilitated and they should be put to death for what they do to children and this irrational attempt to justify their disgusting behavior is evil and despicable.

Comment by parker143200 | December 27, 2011 | Reply

- First offense of non-rape assault (molestation) should be a mandatory 20 year sentence. Second offense, life. Rape (including oral) should be straight to the death penalty.

One argument saving these monstrous bastards is that our death rows are so backlogged. Well, there is no good reason for the backlog to begin with. If someone is sentenced to death, PUT THEM TO DEATH! Give them ONE opportunity for a re-trial, and only if there is new evidence, but then that's it. They continue to hang on because of the continuous haggling by their lawyers. It's not a damned used car lot. It's PROSECUTION!

There are many problems with our legal system, like ridiculous sentencing for mundane crimes while serious acts receive slaps on the wrist. The whole damned thing needs to be cleaned up, and it's a lot easier than politicians involved in the judicial system try to make people believe. I firmly believe it is the way it is to protect certain kinds of offenders, many of which are rapers of children.

21. how stupid can you get to think all pedo's are child rapers, that shows the intelligence of these people. and their stupid agenda, 'force every one to believe as i do in all my narrow minded ways! This is called being uninformed and believing the lies they spread, mostly all wrong!!!

- Well, mack (mackb613000@yahoo.com; 98.105.146.194), I would say that this comment of yours proves beyond a shadow of a doubt the INTELLIGENCE of child rapists. You see, you pathetic piece of child raping trash, every NORMAL adult knows that pedophilia is the fondness for RAPING children. The only ones who believe sex with a child is anything other than rape are the asinine perverted fucks like you. No NORMAL adult has to be forced with INTELLIGENCE. The rest of us are just born knowing that sex with children is RAPE. What you need is a good ass fuck in a finer prison establishment, where your ass raper won't be punished for your anal assault because people like you are there to defend his actions as those of a poor misguided, misunderstood victim of society. Guess what, fucktard... No one will hear you scream.....

25. I know that I am a late comer to this site. I just checked out the Newgon.com website and I am appalled. This site is EVIL — how can they attempt to justify and legitimize the sexual abuse of children? Children cannot consent to sexual intercourse with an adult — sex is for adults not children. It doesn’t matter if the child shows a curiosity about sex or even appears to want to have sex. Having sex with that child is wrong and harmful. It’s just like drugs and alcohol children have a fascination with drugs and alcohol also but it is wrong to give a child drugs and alcohol. Actually drugs isn’t for anyone but alcohol is for responsible adults only. Children are going to be attracted to what is harmful to them all the time it is our job as parents and adults to steer them in the right direction not take advantage of their curiosity to selfishly and predatorily introduce sex — an ADULT activity. Keep up the good work. I will also like to state that everyone seems to be disgusted and gunho about punishing the pedophile until it is their son or their husband that has had sex with a child and I find that then people are quick to blame the victim in those cases. I have a friend whose son went to jail for carnal knowledge of a minor and her response was “oh the girl must have lied about her age and been promiscuous somehow.” Now my best friend is upset that her son has to register as a sex offender. I feel like he got what he deserved. Until we as a society are willing to punish the perpetrators of this crime instead of enabling the behavior child sex abuse will continue and increase simply because we allow, enable, and defend it when it is a close family member that has done it.

26. I don’t understand why we don’t just kill these sick monsters. Obviously the government refuses to do it, so are we just going to let them walk among us, preying on innocent children? Also, I don’t know if you’re aware but there is now a push to rename pedophilia to “intergenerational intimacy”. Seems like the slippery slope argument wasn’t a bunch of bigotry after all. I am so sick of people trying to justify, rationalize and normalise this evil behavior. I truly hope anyone who hurts a child rots in hell for all eternity, I have to believe in God because I have to believe these people will get what they deserve, if not I don't think I could go on living. Thank you for this site and this info!

28. I happened across this site just surfing the net for nothing in particular. I must say although I am completely against any kind of abuse especially when it comes to children I could not support the death of these monsters. As explained to me by my uncle. With every death an innocent is punished. Although the monster be deserving the monsters relatives, whom are innocent, would suffer from its death. Instead, lets consider, a more desirable punishment. I say we should castrate and sew up these monsters genitalia. Allowing for certain apparatuses attached to allow for necessary bodily functions. Then we lock them in a room where videos are constantly shown of the worst kinds of death imaginable for a year straight. So these images become ingrained in their minds. As they sleep at the end of the year we put them under anesthetics and surgically remove their ability to see and hear. Now these monsters can no longer hear or see and the last images they saw were of the videos. Then we throw them into a room with the rest of their kind. They would then be tortured and slowly go insane. I think that would be more appropriate. Death just seems to easy.

Comment by TUECAA | February 19, 2012 | Reply

- Well thank you, most would say I'm slightly twisted. But, when it comes to areas such as these I believe these children are forced to live their lives suffering from what has happened to them. It does not seem fair to let these monsters off so easy.

Comment by Daniel Haun | February 19, 2012 | Reply

- My response when people mention lenience and a more compassionate attitude is to bluntly remind them of what exactly the monsters do to these children and ask them if they truly believe coddling the abuser will help the child heal.

What is twisted is this “compassion and understanding” society has been manipulated to feel by these monsters and their sympathizers they have groomed into championing them. This is when only logic and reason should come into play rather than emotion. It’s funny, too, because I and others in this fight have been accused of being too emotional to see the side of the pedophile “clearly.” What’s laughable is that what allows us to see the TRUE side of pedophiles is by removing ALL emotion and viewing them as what they CLEARLY are!

It’s emotion that the pedophile community has used to win support and sympathy. Sympathy is an emotion. But again, these people are brainwashed and groomed into not understanding that part.

It isn’t emotion that tells us pedophiles should be put to death. It’s pure emotionless fact because we know based upon cold facts that they do not stop. It is emotion that keeps them alive.

And it’s a twisted emotional sense of justice that makes these pawns see the abuser as needing more compassion and understanding than their young innocent victims. All supporters of pedophiles should be locked up as accessories to the crimes of the pedophiles they protect.

32. Thank you for putting this information out there. This is a heinous crime and people need to be aware. I would like to ask that you switch the language from “pedophile” to child molester/child rapist. I have two reasons for this request. 1st – pedophile is actually a sanitized term, we need to identify the behavior for what it is. Not calling it rape & molestation gives perpetrators an easy way to deny that they are doing anything wrong. 2nd- the word pedophile is misleading in that not all pedophiles rape or molest children and not all child rapists or child molesters are pedophiles. Rape is about power and control and not about sexual attraction. Pedophiles make up a subset of child molesters and rapists. The child molesters and rapists are using the word pedophile to mask the real behavior. I work with victims of sexual violence and have seen first hand what this devastating crime can do to a person. Using the terms perpetrator, rapist, etc. validates a victims experience, whereas terms like pedophile minimize it.

Comment by Sam | April 16, 2012 | Reply

- Thank you for your comment, Sam! I appreciate your work with victims and your efforts to be blunt about the true meaning of pedophilia. The term “pedophile” has always and will always remain synonymous with those who sexually assault children. I nor anyone else in this field will EVER stop using that term and mixing it with “monster,” “child rapist,” “sexual abuser,” etc... There is a movement right now in the pedophile community to have pedophilia legalized and make the term “pedophile” appear non-threatening. If we were to do as you suggest, we would be playing right into their hands. Therefore, those of us who fight against pedophiles and all child rapists will continue to expose the term as the evil that it truly is by using it in conjunction with accounts of sexual assault on children.

33. hopefully somebody out there can help. As an incest survivor i feel obligated to investigate this unusual situation, I quite by accident found a video while working in vietnam of a co worker on a vietnamese orphanage website. he and the preacher involved in the video both made an identically strange gesture to the camera in the presence of children they were dancing with. the video was a promotional tool for apparent fundraising purposes. its hard to explain but they both poked their tongues outward towards the inside of their cheeks like a crude teenager would do to mean blowjob, but without the generally accompanying hand gesture. without mentioning the gesture, i mentioned to him that i stumbled on the site, and that i thought it was cool that he was doing outside volunteer work. (we were working for an NGO). He denied it, but im sure it was him in the video for a multitude of reasons. within 3 days he suddenly had to return to australia. this has always bothered me and ive lost a lot of sleep over it but figured he was gone and that there was nothing to be done. I now realize that someone should be notified because of the kids at the school. I really had just blocked it out because i was so disturbed by it. can someone tell me who to contact?

There are several agencies you can contact, one being your country’s federal investigative services. They work with international law enforcement (Interpol). There are, also, non-profit organizations that have ties to agents who are involved in international cases of child sexual abuse. If you go to my “SUPPORT” tab, you will find those groups. Please let me know if you need any more assistance. If you wish to add more direct information, you can tell me in your comment to keep it private. 34. Hey guys. Some of you have pretty strong feelings about capital punishment, when it comes to pedophiles. I just wanted to put a topic out there and get some opinions: Surely castration is the way forward as apposed to murdering them? Maybe a lot of you are from America and I am British so probably see things differently to some of you. But the way I see it is; what they do is obviously disgusting; however they are clearly very sick... Some of you are religious, I however am agnostic, although was brought up as a Christian. But shouldn't you let God judge?... It could be maybe these people are born with this condition, same as you are possibly born with your sexuality (gay)? Anyway I am for castration of all child molesters as apposed to capital punishment. What do you think? PEACE

Comment by poppyrushka | December 17, 2012 | Reply

- Thank you for your thoughts, Poppy. The problems with your ideas are:

A. Castration does not work. There has been a punishment of Chemical Castration on repeat sexual offenders. It has proven to be a failure. The abusers simply use other tools to rape and otherwise sexually abuse. Every recipient of chemical castration has re-offended or has confessed to still having the desire to re-offend. All chemical castration does is prevent an erection.

B. Punishing child sexual abusers has nothing to do with religion. I am a Pagan, many others in this work are atheists, agnostics, Jewish, and Christian. The point isn't to "judge." The point is to STOP the abuse. Praying to any form of a god isn't going to stop sexual assault. Ask any child who prays to god every night for their rapist not to come to their room.

C. People are not born with this "condition." It is a psychological by-product of childhood abuse, which doesn't necessarily have to include sexual abuse. Raping and molesting a child is like the rape of an adult. It is purely a power trip and an expression of anger, even in the cases of pedophiles who claim to "love" children. This is not in any way, shape, or form remotely like homosexuality. Homosexuality is a gender preference. Pedophilia and child abuse is the willful choice to force sex onto a helpless child. The pedophile community is currently trying to use the persecution of homosexuality as their own situation, stating that they are the same as homosexuals and are being misunderstood and persecuted the same. They are pushing to have pedophilia legalized and recognized as a sexual preference. They claim their victims are their willing girl friends and boy friends because they have terrified them into not arguing that claim. The moment pedophilia is legalized, they will be allowed to have sex with any child, including your own or your younger sibling or the sibling of your best friend, and the parents will have no say because the legal defense for the rapist will be that it was the child's choice.

I encourage you to read through my site. You seem very ill-informed and all too eager to defend the rapers of children.

I have a question, Oh, my name is Antony BTW. I was a victim of abuse at a young age and I’m in my 40’s now and have been told that here in Australia that there is now law to cover rape by a mature female on to a male child? do you know if that is true? I only ask as for me it was an older female relative when I was 9yo. But here in Australia its like there is no justice. Any advice would be much appreciated? And yes I have asked several lawyers and none of them are interested Not even legal aid here

Comment by Antony Stephens | August 12, 2013 | Reply

- Thank you, Antony, and welcome! I believe it is true! I have contacts in Australia and very good friends with B.A.C.A. International there. Click the “Support” link at the top of my page for videos about B.A.C.A. (Bikers Against Child Abuse) and contact information. They work side-by-side with local law enforcement agencies in their jurisdiction, and could get you in touch with people who could help you find help. They are primarily “muscle” used to intimidate victims’ abusers, but they have met a wide range of child defenders you could use on your side. Please let me know if this works for you!

I’m sorry, though, that it has taken Australia so long to recognize women as abusers. They are a smaller percent of the statistic, but they do very much exist! I have posts on this site that discuss male victims, and you can find another site called Toy Soldiers in my Support link that deals primarily with abuse of young males by female adults and male adults.

I wish you well, Antony! If there is anything you need, please don’t hesitate to write again. And if you ever just want to talk, you can leave a private comment that I won’t publish and can respond covertly to. Peace!

45. Reblogged this on The Witches Daily Almanac and commented:

A trusted friend pointed me in the direction of an abomination she became aware of that was posting about child abuse on a scam Facebook page. If I’m honest, I couldn’t bring myself to go to the page, particularly when I received the warning that it was not a true Facebook page, however, the link to this blog was directly underneath the warning. I trust WordPress, therefore, I pasted the link in my browser which took me to this blog. It is 100% informative and caring and I truly commend them for what they are doing. If you visit their blog, please like them and bookmark their blog, particularly if you have children of vulnerable years.

The reason for my friend directing me to the other site was a lot to do with the fact that paedophiles are using #Pagan / #Wiccan sigils or symbols in order to “identify” themselves online. This is a proper travesty, but then, what can we expect? What they DO is even a more proper travesty, but then to link themselves with the good Pagan people of this World makes it harder for us to be accepted. Before you get upset, I would feel exactly the same if paedos were using Christian, Jewish, Hindu, Muslim, or any other symbology pertaining to any religion or creed. And, perhaps they do, we just haven't spotted it yet. I would fully expect any religion to be hacked off at this disrespect to their beliefs. Believe you me, I would be hacked off FOR them, as well!

Paedophilia has touched almost everyone's lives in some way or another. Whether it were online predators or a family member or friend....we've all had it in our lives in some respect. So, please give "The Ultimate Evil" your support for what they do for the safety of our most precious and vulnerable people....our children. Blessed be.

Father, Son and Holy Spirit also. Evidently people have not done their research and are willing to believe anything. How you could believe this is beyond me. And i come from a law enforcement family. And the Roxy surfing symbol?! Are you serious?? You guys have been had. And just by coming out with this information shows how incredibly ignorant you really are. - Someone needs to stop pretending to be a pagan and admit her true christian heritage. Every pagan KNOWS the triquetra pre-dates wicca (an invention of the 21st century) and christianity by over 800 years. Scribbles of the ancient symbol were found on stone runes dating back to the B.C. era. Any REAL pagan knows this. We, also, know how to spell triquetra. Dumbass.

If you bothered to look through my site, you would know my honor and my dedication to this fight against pedophiles. You would, also, avoid looking like the asshole you are by claiming they aren't real.

Really? Pedophiles aren't real? They are something to be used as jokes to make fun of people for "believing in"? Funny ... the thousands upon thousands of child rape convictions must be imaginary, too. The daily reports of children as young as newborns being sexually abused must be imaginary. The admission of child abuse by pedophiles and the multitude of child porn websites must be fake, too. The pedophiles who threaten my life weekly for revealing their grooming tactics and codes must just be leprechauns and every day is their April Fool day. I guess Alfred Kinsey was lying in his "research" he published about pedophilia and the men he hired to rape little girls and boys, and the victims of his research who have come forward as adults to testify to his monstrous deeds. But hey, you keep dreaming of aliens and Abba if that helps you sleep at night. The rest of us in the real world rarely sleep because clueless fucks like you refuse to get off your lazy ass and remove your precious rose-colored glasses to help the children being raped and molested on a daily basis. They don't get to pretend it's all fake like you do, but I bet they wish those aliens were real enough to take them away. You're sure as hell not doing a goddamned thing to help them.

I see on your page you shared a quote by Warrior Wisdom and The Warrior Lifestyle. It reads:

"When our actions are based on good intentions, our soul has no regrets.

It is the intention behind your actions that determine your honor or lack of honor. If you want to determine whether or not an action is honorable, always explore your intentions behind that action. This will show you what you need to know."

You seem to like this quote a lot and think you relate to it. So, Diane, what can we surmise is the intention behind YOUR actions when you attempt to discredit our fight against child abuse? The only people who have come here with such comments are pedophiles. Perhaps you should explore your intentions behind this action, Diane. Why have you attempted to harm the fight against pedophiles and hurt the pagan community with your christian-biased misinformation?

You care more about your friend's dog in Florida and legalizing marijuana than you do about children. You attempt to call upon Wolf but you have no idea who Wolf spirit is. Wolf is a teacher and a fierce protector of the young. Your invocation of this spirit is an offense to the Guardians by your actions here, and you will not be shown mercy by Karma. It's as great a travesty as your obsession with the Warrior Spirit when you know nothing of the kind. You are so terrified to face the reality of evil in this world that you choose to harm those who shed sweat, blood, and tears in defense of children. You are no warrior. You are a coward and all the world sees you for what you are.

Incidentally, Diane, these image sheets come directly from an FBI in-house memo. Had you bothered to look through my site, you would know who I am and that I and this site have been thoroughly checked out by NCMEC for inaccuracies. Call them yourself. Send them the link to my page. You may want to grab a bottle of Xanax when you learn the truth. It can be so stressful for one with such delicate sensibilities.

I will leave you with my final thoughts on this quote you posted on November 17, 2011:

“This is for all the Strong ladies, who have been through a lot in life and survived!!! I am strong because I’ve known weakness, I am compassionate because I have experienced suffering, I am alive because I am a fighter, I am wise because I’ve been foolish, I can laugh because I have known sadness. I can love because I have known loss. RE-post if u are a strong woman who has weathered the storm but still loves to dance in the rain..”

The blatant deceit gets me the most, but you lie more to yourself than others. You don’t know what surviving means. You know nothing of being strong. Everyone involved in this blog, past and present, is a survivor of child abuse – sexual and physical. We didn’t imagine being molested, raped, burned, restrained and beaten. You would like to think that we did because you prefer to imagine it’s all a game. Well, Diane, we wish we had imagined it. Since we can’t change our past, we fight to defend the children who don’t have to become victims and we fight for the children who deserve to be freed from a hell you can’t possibly imagine in your dreams of rainbows and unicorns. You’re strong? You’re compassionate and have experienced suffering? You’re the biggest con-artist of them all, you insensitive bitch, and I hope your friends come across this blog and find your sick and evil words that reveal you for the lying pedophile defender you truly are.

47. I feel somewhat horrified that they are using our religious symbols (if they really are). If I was wearing my valknut and someone asked if I was a pedo I would probably get a bit violent.

Comment by roamingjaguar | August 12, 2013 | Reply

- Welcome, Roaming Jaguar! In all actuality, they will use anything now that resembles their original symbols since the original ones are too easily recognized by law enforcement.

When I first posted this, I was on a mission to stop anyone from using the symbols. Although I succeeded in having all but one company do so (and they are linked to NAMBLA), I drew the line at insulting the companies and organizations that own the newer symbols. It isn’t their fault these twisted bastards took their innocent symbol to use for their secret language, and we cannot see a pedophile behind them every time we see someone wearing them or using them. We need to care more about children than the images they continue to abuse. After all, we know how it feels due to Nazi Germany stealing the holy swastika. As pagans, we know this is an ancient symbol of protection and never intended for such evil. Monsters with bad intentions will bend and twist anything to make it their own. If they can look into a child’s eyes and see a toy for torment and pleasure, they will abuse anything. Like you, if I discovered a confirmed pedophile wearing one of our sacred symbols, I would need to be restrained! Peace, sister!

Comment by Chris Yonts | September 4, 2013 | Reply

- Chris, this is NOT a religious post. These are symbols CREATED BY PEDOPHILES, and when their symbols became widely known in Law Enforcement, they began using symbols that resembled the ones they created (including popular non-pagan jewelry that drama-whoring trolls conveniently skim over in your effort to cry about being singled out). The Christian cross has no resemblance to these PEDOPHILE SYMBOLS. I know other Pagan sites entertain trolls turning posts like this into Pagan persecution, but I will NOT tolerate it here. This isn't about religion, it isn't about you, and it isn't going to be turned into a "never again the burning times" grandstand. The only reason I approved this comment was to state my final word on the twisting of this post into some make-believe attack on Pagans. See my post on this very subject. Have a nice day! <https://tuecaa.wordpress.com/2013/08/13/addressing-the-concerns-of-pagans/>

52. You cannot and will never be able to identify a Pedophile by any special group jewellery and by believing what you have been told you have fallen into a trap, people are people and each person chooses to wear what they want wether they are pedophile or not, I am a pagan myself and have not read half the comments after reading the last I just wanted to say that whatever symbol they choose to wear it is the person choosing this is not an attack on any religious group, It is a person choosing to wear what they want.

you can say what you like about my comment for I really do not care, I simply came by after seeing this shared on Facebook and thought I would share with you that there is no special decoder ring for the Pedophile club It is all a rumour spread by fucked up people to try and stir panic, they can be anyone, and unless you can tell by obvious behavioral patterns and day to day activities there is no way to tell who is or is not a pedophile.

Again I say I am pagan, and I do not feel like I have been attacked because someone spreads a rumor that pedophiles use symbols we hold close.

Comment by Nos | September 4, 2013 | Reply

- Hello, Nos! Thank you for acknowledging this isn't an attack on Pagans. Being that I am one, the whole thing is absurd.

It is true that a pedophile isn't necessarily going to wear a brand. If that were the case, we would have far less victims and far more monsters in prison. However, the symbols posted have been (as I find myself wearily repeating) discovered through law enforcement undercover investigations spanning decades. They've undergone updates and slight changes, but are, indeed, symbols found at meetings of NAMBLA and NAMGLA meetings, as well as coded marks on child porn distributions.

The jewelry has, also, been gifted to their victims to mark them as "little friends" of a pedophile, like a normal person would bestow a promise ring or engagement ring to another normal adult.

These are not rumors and if you choose to research these symbols, you can see them on many resources of exposed pedophile groups.

I do agree that there is usually no easy tell for general society. That's why it's important to remain vigilant and not set up our own children as easy targets. It isn't difficult. Parents and guardians just need to take the responsibilities they signed up for when choosing to become a parent, guardian, teacher.. Common sense plays at least 80% in standing between a child and a predator. We don't have to see monsters behind every shadow and evil in every charm and bobble. We just have to let kids be kids, give them limitations with technology, teach them the tools to respond to bad situations, stop sexualizing them, stop supporting TV and clothing companies that sexualize kids, and stop letting our own selfish desires blind us to the dangerous situations we could be putting our kids in.

Your remarks have to be important enough to share as an example to others about your degenerate mentality, and frankly, you just copied and pasted tired old ad nauseum comparisons to pedophilia and child rapists that people simply don't fall for anymore.

Your suggestion about me exposing pedophiles' information gave me a chuckle, though. That promise is to those who wish to speak to me about an issue and don't want their information revealed because they want the conversation private. Child rapists will never get such consideration from me.

Before attempting to pass yourself off as both a medical professional and a lawyer, you should work on your writing skills. I mean, good grief man! - No problem, Nathaniel! Thank you for mentioning this to me. The Nazis got away with tarnishing the swastika because no one could speak up then. What you should know is Anonymous is actively hunting predators and when they catch them, they turn all of the information they gather over to the FBI. Anonymous is very much involved in the war against pedophiles, and they are not happy when a pedophile tries to look like one of them.

It does NOT mean pedophilia, however, pedophiles have tried to use it to replace their traditional spiral triangle. Had you read the article and even some of the other comments here, you would know I made it a point to say that.

Rather than being angry with me for exposing the pedophiles stealing our image, why not be angry with the pedophiles using our image to prey upon pagan children? Or is that too much to ask for someone who can't even read an article?

Comment by TUECAA | April 6, 2014 | Reply

- Since you can't read the article for yourself, I decided to take the clipping from the portion pertaining to WHY I posted OUR Valknut:

QUOTE FROM MY ARTICLE:

"Recently, I received a comment from a suspected pedophile bragging about the newest additions to their collections. These logos were not created by them but are already in place as innocent designs for unrelated issues. The purpose for using these common images is to fool society into not thinking twice when seeing someone wearing these items. In the words of the person who commented to me:

We do not adhere strictly to the shapes you posted. We can modify them slightly and still recognize other girl and boy lovers. I am sure you have seen the new necklace designed by Jane Seymour. You probably have a pendant of your own. The ladies like them. So do little girls and little girl lovers. When asked about mine and why I wear a bit of woman's jewelry, I say it is a reminder of my dead wife and child. Don't you know, people don't like talking to widowers because it is a sore subject. They would rather change the subject fast, and so I escape further prying into my necklace that signals other girl lovers that I am a GL. For my BL attraction, I don the wiccan triple knot. I know too of GLs who use the Roxy surfer girl heart logo and BLs who use the pagan vaulknot. These are both variations of the GL heart logo and the BL triangle logo but the public will never know the difference.

THAT is a quote from a comment I received from a pedophile. THEY are to whom your anger should be directed, not the person revealing their lies!
